

SHAB-E-QADR – NIGHT OF ESTEEM

Compiled by Ghulam Subhani

English Translation by: M. Ahmedullah Baig

Hadees: Narrated Hadrat Anas bin Malik Radih Allah Anho that upon arrival of the month of Ramadan, Rasool Allah Sallallah Alaihi Wasallam said, "This month has come unto you and within it is a night which is better than a thousand months. Hence the person who deprives himself of its blessing is deprived of all goodness, and none is deprived of its goodness except he who is most unfortunate." (Ibn Majah)

Hadees: Narrated Hadrat Ayesha Radi Allaho Anha that Rasool Allah Sallallaho Alaihi Wasallam instruct us to look for Shab-e-Qadr during the odd nights of the last ten days of Ramadan. (Albuqari)

Hadees: Narrated Hadrat Ayesha Radi Allah Anha that she asked Rasool Allah Sallallaho Alaihi Wasallam, "Ya Rasool Allah, what should I do if I identify Shab-e-Qadr?" He replied, "Recite this prayer, Allahummah innaka affoowun tuhibbul afoo fa'foo anni." (Tirmizi)

NAWAFEEEL – OPTIONAL PRAYERS

1ST Shab-e-Qadr: On the 21st night of Ramadan offer four rakat prayer with two salaams (two rakat each) reciting Surah Fateha, Inna Anzalna, and Qulhu Allah Ahad once in each rakat and seventy times Durud Shareef after completion of the four rakat prayers.

RECOMMENDED MEDITATION (WAZAYEF)

- On the 21st night of Ramadan, recite Inna Anzalna twenty-one times.
- On the 23rd night of Ramadan, recite Surah Yaseen and Surah Rahman once.
- On the 25th night of Ramadan, recite Surah Dukhan seven times for ease in the grave.
- On the 25th night of Ramadan, recite Surah Fateha seven times for any wish.
- On the 27th night of Ramadan, recite all seven Surahs that begin with ح for forgiveness and relief of punishment in grave.
- On the 27th night of Ramadan, recite Surah Mulk seven times for forgiveness.
- On the 29th night of Ramadan, recite Surah Waq'e'ah seven times for bounty in food.

Hadrat Ali Radi Allah Anho said that the person who recites Inna Anzalna seven times during Shab-e-Qadr, is relieved of all hardship and the angels pray for his abode in heaven.

On this great night it is of great benefit to perform Salat-UI-Tasbih.

The person who recites Inna Anzalna thrice before prayers on Jumu'atulwida (The Last Friday) is rewarded with good deeds equivalent to the number of people that offer prayers on that day.
